Parashas Pikudei— “Pekudei,” “To Sum” and “To Remember”

The meaning of “Pekudei,” in the expression, “Eileh Pekudei HaMishkan,” is “Sum Total of the Ingredients,” such as gold, silver, and copper. The Torah here provides a report sheet, to provide evidence that every bit of material contributed to the Mishkan was used for that purpose.

“All the gold that was used for the work - for all the holy work – the offered-up gold was twenty-nine talents and seven hundred thirty shekels, in the sacred shekel.” (Shemos 38:24)

“The silver of the census of the community was a hundred talents, one thousand, seven hundred seventy-five shekels in the sacred shekel; a ‘beka’ for every head, a half-shekel in the sacred shekel for everyone who passed through the census takers, from twenty years of age and up, for the six hundred three thousand, five hundred fifty. The hundred talents of silver were to cast the sockets of the Sanctuary and the sockets of the Partition ...” (Shemos 38:25-27)

“The offered-up copper was seventy talents and two thousand four hundred shekels. With it, he made the sockets of the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, the Copper Altar...and all the vessels of the Altar...(Shemos 38:29-30)

Another meaning of the “Shoresh,” or Hebrew Language Root, “Pei,” “Kuff,” “Dalet,” is “To Remember.”

We find a usage of this at the end of Parashas VaYechei, where Yoseph, anticipating difficulties to come in leaving Mitzrayim, says to his brothers, using the expression “Pakod Yiphkod,” “He will surely remember” – “I am about to die, but eventually, the Almighty will surely remember you and will take you up from this land to the land which he swore to give to Avraham, to Yitzchok and to Yaakov.” (Bereshis 50:24)

And Yoseph made the Children of Israel swear as follows: “When the Almighty surely will remember you, that you will bring my bones up from here.” (Bereshis 50:25)

And when it came time to impress Moshe Rabbeinu into the campaign to liberate the Jewish People from Egypt, HaShem spoke to Moshe from the Burning Bush, as follows: “Go and gather the elders of Israel and say to them, ‘HaShem, God of your fathers appeared to me, the God of Avraham, Yitzchok and Yaakov and said to me, ‘I have surely remembered you and what has been done to you in Mitzrayim.’” (Shemos 3:16)

And, when the hour of liberation arrived, the Children of Israel busied themselves with retrieving the valuables owed them by the Egyptians, but Moshe was faithful to the oath administered by Yoseph HaTzaddik, “And Moshe took the bones of Yoseph with him, for the viceroy of Egypt had clearly adjured the Children of Israel saying, when the Almighty will surely remember you, take my bones from here with you.” (Shemos 13:19)

Another meaning, related to the feelings felt by mortal human beings to their infinite Father, expressed by Dovid HaMelech in the Book of Tehilim, are

“Your laws are straight, filling my heart with joy.” (Tehilim 19:9)

and

“See, O God, for Your laws are beloved to me!”
